

The University of Cape Town School of Education is hosting the

South African Society for History Teaching

2008 Annual Conference

THEME: A celebration of history teaching in the 350th year of schooling in South Africa

DATES: 26-27 September 2008

The morning and afternoon conference sessions on 26 September will be held at the Iziko Museums' Slave Lodge in Adderley Street to commemorate the first school, which was for slave children. It is planned that they will include a tour of Parliament. All the other sessions, that evening and on the next day, will be at the School of Education, UCT Upper Campus, Rondebosch.

FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS AND WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

ACCOMMODATION:

There are many accommodation possibilities in Cape Town. The best advice is to use the Web to find what suits you. The closest to the city will be in the city bowl area, and the closest to UCT will be in Mowbray, Rondebosch, Newlands or Claremont. (The closest accommodation will, however, tend to be the more expensive.) You are advised to book early. Suggested websites (among many) are www.capestay.co.za; www.sleep-out.co.za; or www.cape-venues.co.za.
