Crawford College and the South African Society of History Teachers invite you to the Society's annual conference to be held at Crawford College, Sandton, Gauteng on 25th and 26th September 2009.

The theme of the conference is:

History and Technology - Media Makes Magic!

An effective utilisation of science and technology to enhance the experience of history teaching and learning.

The South African Society for History Teaching (SASHT) is calling for submissions for papers and for workshops related to the above theme showing how one can enhance the experience of history education by using the latest means available - as well as the best from the past!

The focus should be on the current schools history curriculum and we would like creative ideas on this matter, so that teachers and learners can have an amazing experience in the classroom and leave feeling invigorated and educated!

What can be discussed? The use of the internet for History teaching, as well as on cell phones, effective ways for using Ipods, DVDs, films, computer-based education...and others? Tertiary educators and researchers in Education and in History can participate by sharing research results in these fields.

Let us try and make the upcoming conference one that looks to enrich the experience of teaching history by using the latest technology available to enhance the study and values of the past!

Submission of papers by 30th April 2009, to Patrick McMahon or Elize van Eeden.

Contact details for Patrick McMahon (011) 784-3447 or pmcmahon@crawfordschools.co.za

Registration fee : R430 before the end of April 2009 or R490 thereafter.

Further details will follow early in the New Year.
