

SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIETY FOR HISTORY TEACHING (SASHT) CONFERENCE

1 – 2 OCTOBER 2021

“Teaching controversial and emotive topics in a diverse society”

IMPORTANT LINKS

PLENARY: Click here to join the meeting

VENUE A: Click here to join the meeting

VENUE B: Click here to join the meeting

Thursday 30 September:

15:30 – 16:30	Meeting: Yesterday & Today Editorial members	Prof Johan Wassermann	Venue: ONLINE
17:00 – 18:00	SASHT Executive Committee meeting	Ms Marj Brown	Venue: ONLINE

DAY ONE
Friday 1 October, 07h30-18h30

07:30 – 08:00 PLENARY	ACCESS AND CONNECTION
08:00 – 08:45 PLENARY	Welcome, Introductions (Conference organising committee) Opening address (Prof Mary Baxen – DVC: Academic, Sol Plaatje University)
08:45 – 09:15 PLENARY	Presentation (Ms Marj Brown – SASHT chairperson)
09:15 – 9:30 PLENARY	Virtual tour of Sol Plaatje University and Kimberley
BREAKAWAY ROOMS	VENUE A		VENUE B
09:30–10:30	Session Chair: Dr Mahunele Thotse		Session Chair: Dr Byron Brunt
	Dr Maropeng Malebana and Dr Mahunele Thotse (University of Limpopo)	The place of Afrocentricity in a decolonised history curriculum in South Africa	Dr Byron Bunt and Dr Pieter Warnich (North West University)
			Utilizing a historically imbedded source-based assessment model (HISBAM) in the history classroom

SASHT CONFERENCE, 1-2 OCTOBER 2021 – OFFICIAL PROGRAMME

	Mr Edward Mboyonga (UFS)	“Silenced and invisible historical figures in Zambia: An analysis of the visual portrayal of women in senior secondary school history textbooks”	Ms Marisa Lombard (University of Pretoria)	A lived history on the cultivation of a white Afrikaner juffrou identity
	Discussion		Discussion
10:30 – 11:45	COMFORT BREAK/STRETCH
11:45 – 13:15	Ms Marj Brown (Roedean School); Dr Athambile Masola; Dani Cooper; Onesisa Mtwana	Creating a digital archive of women’s histories: The story of Asinakuthul collective”	Ms Nthathi Ntlama and Dr Walter Sengai (National University of Lesotho)	Examining the possibility of intergrating history and citizenship education in the curriculum: a case of three secondary schools in Maseru
	Mr Boitshoko Mboweni (UP)	The mournable body: Un-silencing the narratives of women in the construction and teaching of history	Dr Moses Mkhomi (University of Fort Hare)	Teaching democratic values in South African primary schools: Towards entrenched rule of law
	Mr Roderick Willis (University of Stellenbosch)	A political-historical narrative of high school athletics in Cape Town, South Africa with special reference to Western Province Senior School Sports Union, 1956 - 1972.	Dr Mbusiseni Dube (University of Zululand)	Online learning challenges Postgraduate Certificate in Education History students faced during COVID19 at the University of Zululand
	Discussion		Discussion

13:15 – 14:30	LUNCH
BREAKAWAY ROOMS	VENUE A		VENUE B
14:30 – 16:30	Session Chair: Dr Walter Sengai		Session Chair: Mr Graham West
	Dr Denise Bentrovato (University of Pretoria)	(Re)framing school history in a post (-) colonial, globalized world: Insights from empirical research in and on Africa	Mr Graham West and Mr Kevin Smart (Brescia House School)	Connecting with untold stories
	Dr Walter Sengai (National University of Lesotho)	History at crossroads. Integrating the value and place of school history from the perspectives of students at one institution of higher learning in Lesotho	Mr Kopano More (Bakwena Ba Mogopa Community)	Conversation with my elders: The untold stories of the remarkable courage and proud legacy of Bakwena Ba Mogopa, 1901 - 1984
	Ms Mutale Mazimba and Ms Yvonne Kabombwe (University of Zambia)	Teach us history that is relevant: Youths, social media and school history curriculum appraisal in Zambia	Dr Annie Chiponda (Chancellor University, Malawi)	The untold stories/silences in the secondary school history curriculum and textbooks in Malawi
	Dr Valencia Mabalane & Prof Maropeng Modiba (University of Johannesburg)	Challenges in teacher education provision during the covid-19 pandemic	Ms Amy Apollis; Mr Henk Conradie & Dr Francois Cleophas (Stellenbosch University)	A critical reading of non-racial school sport movement literature. A case of western province senior schools' sports union
	Discussion		Discussion

16:30 – 17:30 PLENARY	Keynote – Dr Judy Pace Teaching Controversial Issues in Contentious Times: Cross-National Lessons Facilitator: Prof Johan Wasserman
17:30 – 18:30 PLENARY	SASHT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
END OF DAY 1

DAY TWO
Saturday 02 October, 07h30-11h30

07:30 – 08:00 PLENARY	ACCESS AND CONNECTION
08:00 – 09:00 PLENARY	Keynote – Dr Garth Benneyworth Uncovering a forgotten history. Black concentration camps of the South African War (1899-1902) Facilitator: Dr Alan Felix
BREAKAWAY ROOMS	VENUE A Session Chair: Dr Nathan Moyo	VENUE B Session Chair: Dr Lloyd Maphosa

SASHT CONFERENCE, 1-2 OCTOBER 2021 – OFFICIAL PROGRAMME

09:00 – 11:00	Mrs Vanessa Mitchel & Dr Francois Cleophas (Robben Island Museum and Stellenbosch University)	Re-interpreting, retelling and rewriting sport narratives for the Robben Island Museum, 1961-1991	Mr Graham West & Mrs Laura van Houten (Brescia House School)	Global connections in Covid-19
	Prof Johan Wassermann (University of Pretoria)	Teaching history in a pre-apartheid context – the case of Johan Rissik Primary school	Mr Allie Alexander & Dr Raymond Fru (Sol Plaatje University)	Narrative enquiry of the forced removal experiences of Malay camps residents of Kimberley
	Dr Nathan Moyo (University of the Free State)	What must a people do to appease an embittered history? Rethinking a pedagogy of closure for national cohesion in Zimbabwe	Dr Lloyd Maphosa (Stellenbosch University)	Faithpreneurship and Africa's religious corporations: A history of the evolution of Christian faith in Zimbabwe
	Ms Sharon Gabie (Rhodes University)	The first cut is the deepest: - The wound needs healing	Dr David Morris (McGregor Museum and Sol Plaatje University)	More than a colonial mansion: Rudd house and the weaving of counter narratives about Kimberley's pasts
	Discussion		Discussion
11:00 – 11:30 PLENARY	Ms Marj Brown (SASHT Chairperson)	Wrap up of conference, reflections, farewells, official photographs

END OF SASHT 2021 CONFERENCE